QUALITY POLICY

ICAR - Central Agroforestry Research Institute is committed to improve the quality of life of rural people through integration of woody perennials on agricultural landscapes for economic, environmental and social benefits. Improvement in land productivity is being achieved through conservation of soils, nutrients and biodiversity to augment natural resource conservation, restoration of ecological balance, alleviation of poverty and to mitigate risks of weather vagaries.

QUALITY OBJECTIVES

- To provide services for increasing productivity, profitability and livelihood through agroforestry interventions in different agro-climatic zones of India.
- To provide improved service delivery to various stakeholders through capacity building in agroforestry and natural resource management.
- Ensuring availability of quality planting materials for agroforestry interventions.
- Achieving documented measurable agroforestry targets timely and qualitatively, and enhanced use of repository of information.
